

Please, please do not make any changes to Wisconsin's Do Not Call list. Wisconsin Residents have been quite clear as in overwhelming majority, that they want regulation on the telemarketing industry and that this has been successful in doing so. The government should serve its public especially when there is such an overwhelming demand for this service!